Hands of the Carpenter Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

LAKEWOOD, CO – The ECFA (Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability) announced today the accreditation of Hands of the Carpenter of Lakewood, CO.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

Hands of the Carpenter joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 27 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

“We are pleased to accredit a ministry committed to remove obstacles that prevent responsible single mothers and widows within Metro-Denver from reaching and maintaining self-sufficiency,” said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 2003, Hands of the Carpenter (www.ehands.org) provides automobile repair and maintenance for low-income single mothers and widows in need so that they can reach and maintain self-sufficiency.

To learn more about Hands of the Carpenter and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch@, ECFA’s program that matches God’s servants with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories. It is ECFA’s newest online feature that allows you to quickly and easily find giving opportunities.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance.
